Dear Pastors, Supporting Churches, and Praying Friends and Family,

God has been doing some wonderful, awesome, incredible things in our ministry in recent weeks. In the fall, we began a Chinese Bible Study. The Lord has blessed these efforts. We now have several Chinese people coming to church on Sundays (a number of these are still not saved), and we have a core group that is attending the Chinese Bible Study on Friday nights. Recently, four Chinese college students all made the decision to believe in Jesus Christ and trust Him as their Saviour. You can't understand what big decisions they have made to overcome their traditional Chinese beliefs (or even Buddhist beliefs in some cases). Please pray that the Holy Spirit would allow us to have an effective and powerful ministry and that we would see "greater works than these." [John 14:12-13]

One Chinese man was just saved last Friday night. The Canadian name that he had chosen was Adam and the name he chose for his wife was Eve. Until recently, he had absolutely no idea that Adam and Eve were the first man and woman that God ever created. Adam has been studying at a college here in Canada while his wife is still in China. A couple months ago, his wife called him and told him that some Christians in China had invited her to go to church and find out more about becoming a Christian. Adam told her not to go because they had their traditional Chinese beliefs and should not really be interested in the Bible and Christianity. But a short time later, one of the Chinese men who attends our church met Adam and began to talk to him about God and the Bible. Adam began attending our Chinese Bible Study, and also attending our church services. I have spent much time answering his questions. At about 11:00 p.m. on Friday night, when I was dropping him off after our Bible study, he wanted to ask me more questions, and that night he chose to believe in Jesus Christ, and he prayed and trusted Christ as his Saviour. Now Adam can't wait to get back to China and to take his wife to church and to help her to learn the Bible and to learn about God and Jesus and salvation!

The story of Adam is just one incredible story of others that I could tell. The Lord is working, the Lord is blessing, and we are grateful. Thank you for investing in this ministry.

Sincerely,

Brian and Rachel Johnston
