Dear Pastors and Friends,

April/May 2010

The Good Old Days!

Praise the Lord for the 60 souls that have been saved since our last letter. Back in the old days, churches used to publish how many were saved, either on a crude sign out front in the churchyard or in the newspaper. Back then, folk' getting saved for eternity was a big deal! The Christians rejoiced and the sinners trembled at the statistics.

God is good! With all the ups and downs in life, we rely heavily on a God that cannot change. If His Words are true, and they are, we never fear that God will forsake us. Did you ever stop to ponder the fact that God is true because His Words are true and His Words are true because God is true? Nothing can change God. Nothing can change His Words. That's something else, they used to believe...in the old days.

Hallelujah! My position on the King James Bible is the same as it was the day I got saved in 1981, and said, "I do believe." Even if I changed my belief, it would not change God's Word. Men can do say and say what they will, God's Word never changes. There is a battle raging (in case no one has noticed) about the old Black Book; but it all started in the Garden of Eden, so I wouldn't worry too much about the outcome! The issue has caused a change in the position of churches towards missionaries. We get a letter every week or so asking for an explanation of our stand on the Bible issue. After 16 years on the field, it has gotten to the point where we will have to raise support again on deputation.

Everything's all right, in my Father's house! Brother Hyles used to lead us in that song. Sometimes I have had to sing it with a lump in my throat! I know everything will be all right! We love you and appreciate your prayers and support. We pray for you all daily!

Still living in the good old days,

Missionary Steve Larsen
