Psalm 119:128 "Therefore I esteem all thy precepts concerning all things to be right; and I hate every false way."

Dear Pastor & Church

May 2010

I taught on the principles of this verse during a recent Tuesday evening Bible Study. Maureen has been attending our evening services for several weeks now. She asked for counsel after this message, and shared her testimony, which appears solid.

Before salvation one of her "habits" was shoplifting. After salvation she developed a deep conviction to make restitution plus 20%. Maureen paid back thousands of dollars of reimbursement and gave back thousands of dollars worth of sellable stolen goods. She contacted store managers and storeowners, not knowing the consequences or outcomes. Maureen is now confident of her salvation and is growing.

I spent much time with Clinton & Sandra trying to help Clinton find work. I traveled extensively through northern Manitoba with them on one prospective job. I shared my testimony with them and they heard the salvation testimony of two other Baptist preachers. I have discerned that they are expert "moochers". They need to be saved.

I had another visit with Carl. He is seeking "help" through AA now. Please pray that he will soon realize that his real need is salvation in Jesus Christ. He is not open to this "Truth" at this time.

We have had a good response so far to my "Macedonian Call" regarding our second ministry in Moose Lake. Our plan is to have a special service there every Saturday afternoon we are available.

This weekend is our annual Trade Show. We have a booth set up, and the distribution of tracts and books is going very well. We have also had some excellent conversations. One of our volunteers stated: "This is so much better than going calling, people are so open here."

We had blessed services at the Corrections Centre recently. Please pray for these men & women who received gospel materials gladly.

Thank you for support received in March 150⁰⁰ & April _____
